Alphonse Gabriel Capone, commonly known as Al Capone, was born in Brooklyn, New York, in 1899. Rising from humble beginnings, he became one of the most infamous gangsters in American history during the 1920s and early 1930s. His criminal activities ranged from bootlegging and gambling to violence and murder, establishing a sprawling empire centered in Chicago.

The Capture and Imprisonment

Capone's criminal enterprise was so influential that law enforcement struggled to bring him down. Eventually, he was convicted not for his violent crimes but for tax evasion in 1931.
