As of the latest fiscal reports, McDonald's reported global revenues of approximately $23 billion, reflecting steady growth driven by both domestic and international markets. The company's revenue streams are primarily derived from company-operated restaurants and franchise fees, with the latter constituting a significant portion due to McDonald's franchise-based business model.

One of the longstanding criticisms against McDonald's is its association with unhealthy eating habits. Despite menu diversification, the perception persists that the brand promotes fast food high in calories, fats, and sugars. This has led to initiatives promoting healthier options and transparent nutritional information.
