Teachers use test outcomes to identify learning gaps, tailor instruction, and provide targeted support. For instance, if a significant number of students struggle with basic numeracy, additional remedial classes and focused exercises are introduced.

However, concerns about educational equity persist. Some critics argue that standardized testing may favor students from more privileged backgrounds who have access to supplementary resources. In Mauritius, efforts are underway to mitigate these disparities through:

- Inclusive teaching practices.
- Remedial programs in underprivileged schools.
- Community engagement initiatives.

Moreover, continuous review and adaptation of test papers aim to ensure they remain fair and representative of all student demographics.
